Briefs.

—Badger Council, Royal Arcanum, hold a regular meeting this evening.

—Wisconsin Lodge No. 14, I. O. O. F., occupy Old Fellow's hall this evening.

—The home of Mr. and Mrs. William Fathers now rejoices over the arrival of a fine boy baby.

—Not much danger of a frost just now, with the thermometer registering the temperature up among the 90's.

—Mr. Haskell is now engaged in putting down a concrete walk ten feet wide around the first ward school building.

—In the new city directory now being delivered by Messrs. Chas. O. Ebel & Co. of Terre Haute, Ind., there are 53 Smiths, 23 Browns, and 19 Jones, which families appear to be the most numerous in this community.

—Captain B. F. Moore, of the second ward, is quietly reorganizing a company of Blaine and Logan Invincibles in the second ward, and is meeting with good success. He will have an even hundred in line in a few days.

—Messrs. Chas. O. Ebel & Co., publishers of our new city directory, estimate the population of Janesville at from 11,000 to 12,000, which is about the figures claimed by our own people who claim to be well posted in such estimates.

—Messrs. Foot & Wilcox, the popular vest and clothing store, have just received an extra large stock of fall styles of cassimere for their merchant tailoring department, and are prepared to give their customers some very good bargains in this line of goods.

—Mr. L. Wyler has a beautiful night blooming cereus at his saloon on East Milwaukee street, which unfolded a handsome flower at eight o'clock last evening. Another bud is ready to unfold its white leaves this evening, between eight and ten o'clock. Mr. Wyler invites his friends to call and see it this evening.

—Attend the party of the St. Patrick's T. A. & B. society, to be given in the Grand armory, this evening. Smith & Corlies band will furnish music for the merry dance, and Shurtliff will serve the supper. A cordial invitation is extended. The society's past efforts are sufficient proof of future success in entertaining their friends; so, assist in a good cause by being present.

—Mr. H. W. Lee, of Fulton, sends us quite a curiosity from that place, it being an unusual leaf of tobacco, which was picked on the farm of Mr. Abraham Keene. It is in the shape of a pocket perfectly formed at the butt of the leaf stem, and will hold nearly a quart of water. When discovered and picked, the pocket was about half full of water. Mr. Lee says it was raised upon land fertilized with bone phosphate, which probably accounts for the unusual growth.

—There arrived in this city this forenoon a family of five persons, husband, wife, two boys and one girl, bound for Bismarck, Dakota. The fact of such a party arriving in the city is no uncommon occurrence, but it is the manner in which they are making the journey that we wish to speak. They left New York city on the 28th day of last May, their household goods and provisions were placed in an ordinary two wheel mule cart, which the husband has propelled the entire distance to this city, and after camping a few hours in the court house park, the family broke camp and started again on their arduous journey, the husband having served in the United States navy during the late war, and now proposes to take a soldier's claim to the soil.

Secretary Charles E. Pierce, of the Blaine and Logan club, to-day received the following dispatch: "MILWAUKEE, Aug. 10, 1884. Hazell will be with you on Monday evening."

Correctly interpreted this means that United States District Attorney G. W. Hazell, of Milwaukee, will address our Blaine and Logan club on Monday evening. Make it a point to hear the eloquent speaker.

Ladies! Ayer's Hair Vigor is a superior hair and scalp dressing. It has become an indispensable article for the toilet.

A portion of Dakota territory. He should have been induced to remain in the city longer, and a hat passed around to raise a fund to lighten the last half of his long journey. All were in good health, and full of hope for a bright future in the land of promise and big wheat fields.

—Mr. Joseph Folk is now in the city delivering the new city directory, published by Messrs. Chas. O. Ebel & Co. of Terre Haute, Indiana. The directory is all that was promised by the publishers, and is unquestionably the best and most perfect directory ever published for our city. One excellent feature is the absence of advertisements, which are usually sandwiched among the names; the paper is of a good quality, and the print is clean, clear and brilliant. The above firm will have no trouble in canvassing for the next directory of Janesville.

—On Thursday next the sixteenth annual picnic of the Janesville Concordia society will take place in Wheeler's grove, third ward. The Bower City band will furnish music for the occasion. The committee of arrangements are preparing a series of games to be played in the grove; refreshments will be served in abundance, and they will endeavor to make this the picnic of the season. The movements will conclude with a grand dance in Concordia hall, Mitchell block, then evening, at which Smith & Corlies, orchestra will furnish the music. Tickets 50 cents. The public is cordially invited to attend.

—At the Blaine and Logan club meeting on Monday evening, Mr. Ed. S. Hayward presented eleven new names for membership in the club, and they were duly enrolled. Secretary Lane stated that he had received a letter inviting the club to visit Chicago on the 23d to take part in the Logan reception. On motion of Hon. James Sutherland the executive committee were requested to appoint speakers for each meeting of the club and see that the names of the speakers were advertised in the daily press. Mr. Sutherland was then called out and made a brief speech. He very clearly presented the question of Chinese emigration as set forth in James G. Blaine's letter in 1879 to the American people. After fully discussing this question the speaker touched upon the benefits the country had received from the republican policy of protection.

—Rev. Mr. Farquhar, of the Northwestern University, at Evanston, Illinois, is in the city, the guest of Dr. and Mrs. S. E. Gish, North Fourth street, second ward. Rev. Farquhar will conduct the service on Court Street M. E. church on Thursday evening.

A LITTLE SURPRISE.

The Blaine and Logan Invincibles Appear in a Street Drill.

A regular meeting of the Blaine and Logan Invincibles was held last evening. President Charles Atwood occupied the chair, and Vice President O. Wells Ray acted as secretary pro tem.

In the absence of the secretary the reading of the minutes of the last meeting was dispensed with.

As the membership of the club was growing so rapidly, it was decided to form into two companies, with separate officers for each company.

The following officers were then elected for Company No. 1:

First Lieutenant—Charles Blay. Second Lieutenant—Frank Cheney.

The following officers were then elected for Company No. 2:

Captain—Frank N. Webster. Second Lieutenant—B. F. Moore.

First Lieutenant—D. Duvey. The commissioned officers were authorized to appoint non-commissioned officers.

The business meeting being concluded, the members to the number of eighty-eight, put on their new uniforms, and with their torches lighted, made their first appearance in the street as a company, under command of Captains Judd and Webster. They marched up Dodge street to High, north on High to Milwaukee, east on Milwaukee to Main, south on Main to South Third, then centerward back to Milwaukee street, thence to Franklin, and then returned to the armory on River street. The company made a splendid show, and expended some very fine maneuvers, their new uniforms showing up to good advantage. A good many people were on the streets when the company made its appearance, and all thought we were to have a regular torch light procession. All republicans were well pleased with the first turn out of the company, and the democrats were correspondingly chagrined, that it was advertised in the daily press. Mr. Sutherland was then called out and made a brief speech. He very clearly presented the question of Chinese emigration as set forth in James G. Blaine's letter in 1879 to the American people. After fully discussing this question the speaker touched upon the benefits the country had received from the republican policy of protection.
